

July 15, 1938 — Sept. 16, 2011

Larry Dean Lanig Sr., 73, of La Pine died Sept. 16, 2011 at his home.

Larry and his twin brother, Jerry, were born in North Platte, Neb., to Richard and Nellie Lanig. He attended schools in Dallas, graduating from Dallas High School. He earned a journeyman's license through a machinist course at Chemeketa Community College.

He worked for Teledyne Wah Chang for 32 years, retiring in 1993.

He and his wife, Pam, moved to La Pine on 1½ acres and purchased a 32-foot fifth wheel to become snowbirds. They wintered for 18 years in Arizona, with Quartzsite being one of their favorite places.

His family was avid arrowhead collectors, and he built up an impressive collection.

He loved the outdoors. Deer and elk hunting with his sons and brothers was a highlight of his life. He also liked to fly fish with his wife in the Deschutes River and at Cascade High Lakes.

Larry married his first wife, Jackie Taylor, in Dallas. They had three children: Larry Jr., Terry and Sheila. They divorced, and he married Pamela Muggerud, who had children Donald and Darlas, whom he adopted.

He is survived by Pamela, his wife of 39 years; his children; brothers Jerry and Richard, and sister Patricia; 13 grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Condolences can be sent to Pamela Lanig in care of Darlas Schroder, 2071 Katherine Drive, Goodlettsville, Tenn., 97739

Memorial contributions in Larry's name can be sent to Newberry Hospice, 51480 Huntington Road, La Pine, OR 97739.
